

Kristen Espitee, M.S., PT
Physical Therapist, Licensed

Mrs. Espitee received her undergraduate degree from the University of Connecticut in 2005. She graduated with a Bachelors of Science in pre-Physical Therapy. She continued on to complete her Masters of Science in Physical Therapy in 2006, also from the University of Connecticut. She has spent her career working a variety of settings with children. She began at Texas Children's Hospital in Houston, TX, where she worked for 2 years. She then worked at CT Children's Medical Center in Hartford, CT for 3 years. She has also worked in private outpatient clinics and continues to do so in the evenings.

Mrs. Espitee has a diverse interest in many areas of physical therapy. She has taken a variety of continuing education courses. Topics have included praxis and the clumsy child, pediatric orthotics, postural control, wheelchair/mobility assessment, school based physical therapy, and early intervention services.

Mrs. Espitee lives in Southbury with her husband Brian, daughters Erin and Shannon, and her dog Izzy. In her spare time, she enjoys hiking, traveling, being outdoors, reading, and spending time with her family and friends.

Mrs. Espitee has worked full time for the Newtown School System since February 2011. She travels between many of the schools, including Newtown High and Middle School, Reed Intermediate School, Middle Gate, Hawley, and the preschool. She loves working with the children and seeing them grow as much as she loves working with the transdisciplinary team in the school setting.
